

A MOTHER'S CRY OF DESPERATION

"Heaven Responds to a Desperate Cry"

Welcome to this beautiful and blessed Mother's Day worshipful celebration! What a joy it is to gather together in the presence of God on this wonderful and lovely day—a day set aside to honor, celebrate, and give thanks for the mothers, grandmothers, spiritual mothers, and nurturing women whose prayers, sacrifices, and unwavering faith have shaped generations. This is not just another Sunday; this is a Turnaround Day—a divine moment of greater worship, deeper fellowship, renewed hope, and supernatural expectation. We believe that as we lift up the name of Jesus today, Heaven is poised to respond, chains are about to break, and situations that have lingered too long are about to shift by the power of God.

This morning, the Lord is calling us to lean into the sound that Heaven cannot ignore—the cry of desperation. Throughout Scripture, whenever a mother cried out from the depths of her soul, God responded with intervention, breakthrough, and divine turnaround. From Hannah's barren womb, to the Canaanite mother's relentless faith, to the Shunammite woman's refusal to accept defeat, their desperate cries became prophetic declarations that moved the heart of God. Today, if there is a burden too heavy, a promise yet unfulfilled, a child in need of deliverance, or a situation crying out for change, hear this prophetic truth: your desperate cry has not fallen on deaf ears. Heaven is listening, God is moving, and this is your season for turnaround as we receive the word: "A Mother's Cry of Desperation: Heaven Responds to a Desperate Cry."

POINT 1: DESPERATION MAKES A MOTHER CRY OUT

(The Cry of Barrenness)

1 Samuel 1:10-11 (MSG): So, Hannah ate. Then she pulled herself together, slipped away quietly, and entered the sanctuary. The priest Eli was on duty at the entrance to GOD's Temple in the customary seat. Crushed in soul, Hannah prayed to God and cried and cried—inconsolably. Then she made a vow: Oh, GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, If you'll take a good, hard look at my pain, If you'll quit neglecting me and go into action for me By giving me a son, I'll give him completely, unreservedly to you. I'll set him apart for a life of holy discipline.

POINT 2: DESPERATION REFUSES TO BE SILENCED

(The Cry of Persistence)

Matthew 15:21-28 (MSG)...: From there Jesus took a trip to Tyre and Sidon. They had hardly arrived when a Canaanite woman came down from the hills and pleaded, "Mercy, Master, Son of David! My daughter is cruelly afflicted by an evil spirit." <sup>23</sup> Jesus ignored her. The disciples came and complained, "Now she's bothering us. Would you please take care of her? She's driving us crazy." <sup>24</sup> Jesus refused, telling them, "I've got my hands full dealing with the lost sheep of Israel." <sup>25</sup> Then the woman came back to Jesus, dropped to her knees, and begged. "Master, help me." <sup>26</sup> He said, "It's not right to take bread out of children's mouths and throw it to dogs." <sup>27</sup> She was quick: "You're right, Master, but beggar dogs do get scraps from the master's table." 28 Jesus gave in. "Oh, woman, your faith is something else. What you want is what you get!" Right then her daughter became well.

POINT 3: DESPERATION MOVES GOD TO INTERRUPT HISTORY
(The Cry That Would Not Accept Defeat)

2 Kings 4:18-37 (MSG): ... When her son died, she refused to accept finality...She declared: "It is well." She pursued and found the prophet.

- Psalm 34:17: "The righteous cry out, and the Lord hears..."
- Jeremiah 33:3: "Call to Me and I will answer you..."
- Isaiah 62:6-7: "Give Him no rest..."
- Luke 18:7: "Will not God bring about justice for His chosen ones, who cry out to Him day and night?"
